

Friday, February 18th, 2011 | Posted by David Brown

Alex Rodriguez to shift in an apartment worth $6 million

Famous hitter for Yankees, Alex Rodriguez to be departing from his home to an apartment worth $6 million. Image By A-Rod Damon.jpg: Keith Allison for sale during the time Alex Rodriguez rented it and possible purchasers were bothering him too much.

The new apartment, where A-Rod will be moving in, is situated in a fresh building located at 80 Riverside Boulevard, 64th lane. The apartment has scenes of Hudson River at a close eye and also has duplicate towers that go up till 41 stories. The apartment is situated at the 35th floor and is a five room condominium at The Rushmore.

The apartment building has other facilities such as a physical fitness center, alongside an indoor pool, as well as an enclosing park that has a baseball field close by. The apartment building has been constructed by Extell Development.

The constructing company, Extell Development was extremely ecstatic about the deal with A-Rod. Extell Development said, "We are extremely happy to have Alex Rodriguez and his family purchasing this apartment.

Alex absolutely fell in love with the apartment, the enclosing park and the Hudson River scenes, but we personally feel that the hitter was most pleased about the nearby baseball field, which is located at the immediate outdoors of the main door".

Alex Rodriguez, or A-Rod, who plays as a hitter for Yankees, is said to be departing from his home, where he lived on rent, and shift to an apartment worth $6 million.

0 tweets

retweet

Alex Rodriguez was paying 30,000 pounds on monthly basis for his luxurious home, which was located at imposingly fashionable 15 Central Park West. The building of the new apartment is tangled in a resenting clash with the Attorney General's Office.

According to sources, Alex Rodriguez admired his fancy 15 Central Park West home but it wasn't marked by high levels of secrecy. The house was positioned