

Charlie Sheen Still On Track To Return To 'Two And A Half Men' By The ...

Charlie Sheen is doing well and will be back on the set of "Two and a Half Men," as predicted, in a few weeks time the actor's lawyer, Yale Galanter, told Access Hollywood on Monday. Galanter told Access that despite a report suggesting the actor would be back on set within two weeks, a previous statement from Sheen's rep, Stan Rosenfield, remains correct, and the actor is only due back before the end of the month....

A real-estate source familiar with the deal told the Daily News Thursday that Rodriguez has yet to sign a contract on the posh apartment with spectacular views of the Hudson River, but has made a solid commitment to buy it.

Advertisements show four-bedroom, full-floor condos like the one A-Rod has picked in the building on Riverside Blvd. and W. 64th St. have been priced at up to $6.5 million.

Rodriguez, who has been dating actress Cameron Diaz, has been renting a $30,000 a month apartment on Central Park West.

He sold his upper East Side apartment in 2008 for $14 million after divorcing his wife, Cynthia.

The ballplayer's real estate broker, Adam Modlin, declined to comment.

Extell Development Co. – which built and opened the twin-towered, 41 story Rushmore building in 2008 – issued a statement confirming Rodriguez's deal.

Rodriguez "loved the building, the park and the water views, but we think that the clincher was the baseball field outside the front door," the statement reads.

Penthouse apartments at The Rushmore feature sprawling living and dining room spaces, working fireplaces and state-of-the art kitchens.

The building's many luxury amenities, including a swimming pool, a fitness center, a billiards room, theater and a 185-car garage.
