

Ruthy Ferrera

NY Luxury Lifestyle Examiner

Subscribe

Sponsor an Examiner

< View all of Ruthy's articles

Email

Print

Yankees slugger, Alex Rodriguez new owner of swank pad in NYC's Upper West Side

February 18th, 2011 7:28 am ET

Alex Rodriguez gets new digs in Manhattan

Photo: Elsa/Getty Images

Slideshow: Selling New York

Related articles

- Knit wise
- Vacation travel journal
- Nadeau Furniture opens up in Greenwich Village
- Google's top engineer sells Manhattan penthouse

Do you like this Article?

Be the first of your friends to like this.

Alex Rodriguez, known to sports fans as, "A-Rod" inked a sweet deal in New York City that makes him new owner of a 4-bedroom penthouse in the Rushmore Building located at the Upper West Side of Manhattan.

The 3,600 square foot posh apartment has exclusive views of the Hudson River, and an actual baseball field. It was reported that the swank-pad set the third-baseman back $6 million dollars.

The following statement was printed Friday in the Daily News, by Extell Development Company, builders of the Rushmore Building, "Rodriguez loved the building, the park and the water views, but we think that the clincher was the baseball field outside the front door," the statement reads.

The Rushmore boasts your usual New York Luxuries, like large windows, sprawling living and dining room spaces, working fireplaces, swimming pool, a fitness center, theater, car garage and state-of-the art kitchens, not to mention the nearby sexy nightlife.

With baseball season near, and Yankee Stadium just minutes north of A-Rod's new glamorous penthouse, New Yorkers will likely see more of actress and girlfriend to slugger, Cameron Diaz.